F OREWORD

In the 1946 Ariel Yearbook the staff has mirrored Monte Cassino school life in all its various facets. This spirit and these achievements, realized at Monte Cassino today and crystallized in these pages, show the culmination of twenty years of zealous endeavor under the patronage of Our Lady.

May this, your annual, hold many happy and inspiring memories of your school days.

Dedication

To the Blessed Virgin Mary
we seniors of 1946 reverently dedicate the Ariel. May she smile upon us and always keep us under her loving protection.

Dear Students of Monte Cassino:

To pen a line of greetings for your Year Book is a great pleasure because it gives me an opportunity to commend your parents.

That they send you to Monte Cassino where God is honored and informs the curriculum is an earnest of their hope that you are moving along the lines of virtue and decency.

I hope you are absorbing the eternal verities so that as the women of tomorrow, you may glorify His Name.

The vital need of the world is the tie that binds us to God—religion—and you are being taught to keep the lines of communication open to Him for guidance and courage. Prayer is that mode.

With blessings upon you and your zealous Sisters of St. Benedict, I am,

Eugene M. Guinn

Coadjutor Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa

SISTER MARY URSULA C.S.B

Baroness Silema, Pauline Snyder, says her prayers in the school chapel just before she is ~~murdered~~.

Verity Goodchild, Betty Atkins gives a blood-curdling scream as she discovers the murdered Baroness

MURDER IN THE NANNERY

At the school switchboard Sergeant Mulligan, Bill Jackson, finds that his effort to get information from efficient Mother Peck, Martha Moroney, and solve a crime in a convent is a trying experience

Inez Escapade, June Bush, tells her enthralled chums what a simple trick it would be to sneak into the chapel and stab the overbearing Baroness.

Rev. Mother, Patricia Sherry, keeps a watchful eye on Mother Trevor, Donna Maynard, who is suspected of the crime by Inspector Pearson.

Looking for the Baroness' lost will in the grave. Rev. Mother is caught by the amazed Inspector, Sergeant, and Baron.

MURDER IN A NUNNERY

Inspector Pearson, Jim McCormick, and Sgt. Mulligan find themselves in an embarrassing predicament when Rev. Mother comes to the door, and the four frightened girls, who were trying to trace the murderer, hide under their bed.

Verity, who found the corpse, put up a good fight with Ines for her right to the newspaper publicity, while the bewildered reporter, Gloria Durham, tries to stop the battle.

Always looking for a clue Inspector Pearson questions the grave digger Mr Tuttle George Jennings about his actions on the day of the murder

The alert Inspector cross examines Mother Basconwaite Peggy Cronk while Rev Mother and Sister Carmela Fannie Marie Clark serve him tea.

MURDER IN A MANNERY

Possessive Mrs. Moss Betty Searle who dreams of the Baron & Donald Mooney childhood days with her pleads for him to leave Venetia Jan Braden Nuns and students hear the Baron and Mrs. Moss's discussion of the last will and mysterious murder.

"Getting prettied up, Bill?"

'Oh, for the life of a crewmember!

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

THE SUBJECT

When Mary, the Virgin, conceived the Christ Child, she was pure and holy. For Thy Son, O God, was born of her, and she was the first to see Him. Through the power of Thy grace, she was preserved from all sin, and she was the first to bring forth the Son of God into the world. Through the power of Thy grace, she was preserved from all sin, and she was the first to bring forth the Son of God into the world.

A Tribute . . .

to lovely Monte Cassino School!

With its experienced and efficient faculty . . . its modern facilities . . . and its quality enrollment . . . Monte Cassino is the outstanding girls' school in the Southwest.

So, here's a wish for future success and accomplishments for all SENIORS of the 1946 class!

Someday You'll Want A Well Dressed Kitchen

There are many reasons why you will want a new kitchen.
First, a new kitchen is a great way to make your home more comfortable and convenient. It is a place where you can find everything you need for your daily life.
